Carroll History Journal Index

Volume	#	Date	Article
1	1	Winter 2008	September on the Hill
			John Diehl Bowman's "Memorandum of Fruit Trees"
			Ownership of the Bowman Family Farm
1	2	Spring 2008	Avalon: New Windsor's Hidden Treasure
2	1	Winter 2009	The Hoff Barn: Yost Greenwood's Legacy
			In Washington's Service: The Frederick Flying Camp Service of Philip Greenwood
2	2	Spring 2009	Vignettes of Cockey's Tavern
2	3	Fall 2009	3 Miles 94 Perches: The Mechanicsville & Finksburg Turnpike
3	1	Winter 2010	A Westminster Friendship
3	2	Spring 2010	A Brief Look at the Carroll County Home Front during World War I
3	3	Fall 2010	Early Settlement and Religious Growth in the Freedom District of Carroll County
4	1	Winter 2011	Starting Over: Excerpts from the Diary of Clotworthy Birnie, 1810-1811
4	2	Spring 2011	A Westminster Monastery
			What Is A Sanborn Map?
5	1	Winter 2012	Radio in 1930 Carroll County
5	2	Spring 2012	Catching Light and Shadow: The Photography of Louis H. Dielman
5	3	Fall 2012	St. Benjamin's: From Log Cabin to White Church on the Hill
6	1	Winter 2013	A Man for All Seasons: Robert Joshua Gill
6	2	Spring 2013	Two Carroll Women: Eyewitnesses to the Civil War
			Sister Matilda Coskery: Daughter of Charity
			Maggie Mehring: A Carroll County Teenager's First-Hand Account of the Civil War
6	3	Fall 2013	Tidewater Cement Company and the Transformation of Union Bridge
7	1	Winter 2014	Dorothy Elderdice: An Indomitable Spirit
7	2	Spring 2014	Sadie Kneller Miller
7	3	Fall 2014	Preserving Carroll County History: 75 Years and Counting
8	1	Winter 2015	When Taneytown Was "Shoetown": The Cambridge Rubber Company
8	2	Spring 2015	Criss-Cross Letters Have a Chequered Past
			V-mail: Solving a Weighty Problem
8	3	Fall 2015	A Pandemic Hits Home: When Carroll County was in the Grip of the Spanish Flu