Terms and Conditions for Submissions to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) Personal Experience Project

By submitting digital videos, digital or physical pictures, digital or physical written material you grant to the Historical Society of Carroll County ("HSCC") the non-exclusive right to use your media submission in historical publications, museum exhibits, presentations, other educational projects and for archival purposes.

You authorize the HSCC to edit the materials, to use and re-use them, in whole or in part, in perpetuity. You hereby waive any right to inspect or approve any finished output that may use your media submission now or in the future, whether that use is known to you or unknown. You understand that you will receive no monetary compensation for the rights granted herein and waive any rights to royalties and/or any other forms of compensation arising from or related to the use of your submission. You also understand that you retain the copyright to use your own images, videos, and statements and may use them in any way you so choose.

Please note, submissions from persons under the age of 18 must be made by parents or legal guardians of the minor.

By submitting media to the HSCC's Coronavirus (COVID-19) Personal Experience Project you agree that you have read these terms and conditions and fully understand its content and meaning. You also understand that you are free to address any specific questions regarding these terms and conditions by asking questions in writing prior to submitting media, and you agree that your failure to do so will be interpreted as a free and knowledgeable acceptance of these terms and conditions

Thank you for your part in making history!
